PESTICIDE MRL WORKSHOP
How global tolerances impact Idaho crops

Monday, December 2, 2013, 9 am --4:30 pm
Hampton Inn, 5700 E. Franklin Road, Nampa, Idaho (Exit 38, Garrity—next to the Idaho Center)
$25 REGISTRATION FEE
ON-LINE PRE-REGISTRATION REQUESTED www.uidaho.edu/MRLWorkshop

For information, contact Ronda Hirnyck
208-364-4046, rhirnyck@uidaho.edu

Workshop Agenda

9:00  Welcome – Ronda Hirnyck, University of Idaho Extension Pesticide Coordinator

9:15  Setting the Global Stage on MRLs and Pesticide Registrations - Dan Kunkel, Director of the IR-4 Minor Crop Pest Management Program, Rutgers University

10:00 Industry Experiences: Cost of MRLs to the US Pulse Industry – Todd Scholz, Technical Director, USA Dry Pea & Lentil Assoc.

10:30 Break

10:45 Codex 101: The Role Codex Committee on Pesticide Residues in Setting Maximum Residue Limits - Dan Kunkel, IR-4

11:15 US EPA Harmonization Activities – Barbara Madden, EPA Minor Use Team Leader, Washington, D.C.

NOON Hosted Luncheon

1:00  MRL Database and Global Priorities (live demonstration of on-line database) – Kimberly Berry, Bryant Christie, Seattle, WA

2:00  Western Commodity Registration Experiences – Lori Berger, AgBusiness Resources

2:45 Break

3:00  How Do We Get to a Global Tolerance: IR-4 Global Residue Studies - Dan Kunkel, IR-4

3:30 Idaho Industry Panel: What We Have Learned and What Needs to Happen Next (invited potatoes, apple, seed crops)

4:15 Wrap up: IMCC activities and local IR-4 Input – Ronda Hirnyck

SPONSORED BY:

Idaho Minor Crop Committee  Idaho Pea & Lentil Commission
Idaho Apple Commission  Idaho Potato Commission
Idaho Barley Commission  Idaho Seed Pesticide Council
BASF, Bayer, Dow, Syngenta